Analysis of Table 1.1

In the September quarter 1995, Western Australia's population grew by 8,400 persons to 1,740,100. This is equivalent to an annual rate of population growth of 1.93%.

In the twelve months to 30 September 1995, the population grew from 1,709,000 to 1,740,100, an increase of 31,100 or 1.82%.

At 30 September 1995, there were 873,900 males and 866,200 females resident in Western Australia, a difference of 7,700 more males. Twelve months prior, there was a difference of 8,000 more males. The trend indicates a narrowing in the gap between the sexes.

Analysis of Table 1.2

In the September quarter 1995 the total increase in population was 8,300. This was 800 or 11% more than the increase in the previous quarter and 300 or 4% more than the September quarter 1994. Between June and September 1995 quarters, net estimated overseas migration increased more than the other components fell.

It appears likely that the increase in population for the calendar year 1995 will exceed the increase of 1994. After 9 months of 1995 the increase has totalled 25,700 compared to 21,600 for the same period of 1994 and a total of 26,900 for the full year.

There was a rise of 320 deaths in September quarter 1995 from June quarter 1995. However, the number of marriages dropped sharply by 843 from June quarter 1995, repeating the pattern that occurred in 1994.

The number of live births and infant deaths in September quarter 1995 were similar to the previous quarter whilst divorces rose slightly to reflect a figure very similar to September quarter 1994.

Analysis of Table 1.4

Rates for marriages in September quarter 1995 dropped sharply from June quarter 1995, reflecting the corresponding fall in the number of marriages as occurred in 1994.

The rates for live births and infant deaths dropped slightly in September quarter 1995 from June quarter, but increased slightly for deaths reflecting the higher number of deaths.

The divorce rate for September quarter 1995 rose more highly from the preceding quarter than it did in 1994, but was still below the 1994 figure.

Analysis of Table 2.1

Total arrivals in the month of February 1996 increased by 12,190 or 23% compared with February 1995.

The total of 2,530 long term overseas visitor arrivals in February 1996 was the highest recorded over the last 15 months.

Short term departures of Australian residents in February 1996 was the lowest recorded in the last 15 months.

The total of 55,030 departures was an increase of 8,540 or 18% over February 1995, mainly due to an increase of 8,560 in short term visitor departures.

Short term overseas visitor arrivals for December quarter 1995 increased by 4,600 or 4% compared with the same quarter last year. This follows on a one per cent increase for September quarter 1995 compared with September quarter 1994. There was an expected rise of 36,800 or 50% from September quarter 1995.

The number of Australian residents departing on short term overseas journeys in the December quarter 1995 fell by 1,600 or 2% from September quarter 1995. However, it represented an increase of 4,300 or 6% from December quarter 1994.

December quarter 1995, which includes the Christmas holidays, had the highest number of short term arrivals and departures in all the six quarters listed.

Analysis of Table 2.3

February 1996 was noticeable for the huge increase in short term overseas arrivals from Indonesia, which was the highest number recorded in the last 15 months (this followed on a large rise in December 1995 and a sharp fall in January 1996).

The total of 8,150 was an increase of 3,940 or 94% from February 1995 and a jump of 5,230 or 179% from January 1996.

Analysis of Table 2.4

In December quarter 1995 there were 109,900 short term overseas arrivals by air. Of these, 57% (62,500 persons) gave the reason for their journey as 'holiday', and a further 29% (31,700) said they were 'visiting friends or relatives'.

People on holiday were mainly from Singapore (27%), Indonesia (17%), and the United Kingdom and Ireland (11%).

People visiting friends or relatives were predominantly from the United Kingdom and Ireland (39%), New Zealand (11%), Singapore (9%) and Malaysia (6%).

Analysis of Table 4.1

4.1 MONTHLY RETAIL TURNOVER : ORIGINAL ESTIMATES

Data in this table have been revised and now show data from the redesigned retail Business Survey. see Information Paper (8511.0) issued on 1 December 1994 or Retail Trade Australia (8501.0) for more detail on the survey redesign.

Estimated turnover of Western Australian retail establishments during March 1996 was $992.7 million (at current prices), an increase of 3.2% over the previous month. The trend estimates show an increase of 0.4% over the previous month.

From March 1995 to March 1996, trend estimates indicate a national annual growth rate of 8.2%. The annual growth rate for Western Australia for the same period was 10.3%.

The national trend estimates show increases of 0.6%, 0.5% and 0.6% for the months of January, February and March 1996. For the same three months, Western Australia recorded increases of 0.4%, 0.3% and 0.4% respectively.

4.2 CONSUMER PRICE INDEX: PERTH

Analysis of Table 4.2

The Consumer Price Index (CPI) All Groups Perth increased by 0.7% between the December quarter 1995 and the March quarter 1996

Major contributors to the change from the December quarter 1995 to the March quarter 1996 were increases in education fees, the cost of pharmaceuticals (due mainly to the reduced effect of the PBS safety net scheme), cigarettes and tobacco prices, mortgage interest charges, beer prices, entertainment and the costs of hospital and medical services. Partially offsetting these increases were falls - mainly in the prices for petrol, furniture, video and sound equipment, cakes and biscuits and motor vehicles.

The increase in the CPI All Groups Perth from March 1995 to March 1996 was 3.6%.
